I had started to write a discussion document on pulse sequence representation as pitch for the CCPN project (who have shied away from doing this).

As you can see, I got as far as describing the SIMPSON approach, but then got bored.

IMHO we would need something slightly higher level than SIMPSON, but as I can't see anybody putting a lot of effort into it, I haven't taken it any further. Make of it what you will.

Paul